

Make a SPLASH READ!

What's local?

Learn about a local stream, river, ocean or other source of water. Write the source of water at the base of the shell. From your newspaper, cut out and paste on sections of the shell or write what you find out about the source of water.

Visit Your Library!

Conduct research on the water source. Fill the remaining sections of the shell with information that you find.

Summer Reading at Your Public Library